To craft your motivational letter exactly to your requirements, I need the following details:

- Company name

- Position name

- Vacancy description (key responsibilities, requirements)

- Company/product info (what they do, mission, recent work if relevant)

- My motivation (why you want this role and company)

- Information about me (relevant experience, skills, achievements, links if any)

Share these sections, and I'll generate a concise, authentic letter with the exact greeting format and structure you specified.
